success story of

Dream Group

If we told you in 1965 that a humble grocery store would grow and flourish into one of the most popular and beloved retail and hospitality brands in Bangalore today, you probably wouldn't have believed us.

But here we are, more than five decades and thousands of sprawling sq. ft. later, known as one of the city's most well-loved and trusted names. A journey seeded by passion, driven by dedication, and forged ahead in the face of challenges.

From the standalone MADEENA STORES to now a super successful chain of retail stores and restaurants, soon to be scaled digitally by the arrival of our app, Dream Group has come a long way. Read on for a glimpse into our story.
